Dear (b) (6)

A black rectangular redaction box covering the name of the recipient.

This is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA-2017-000758), dated March 22, 2017, in which you requested the following:

“[c]opies of all correspondence in detail below:

- Any Freedom of Information Act requests and the responsive materials thereof filed January 2011 to present regarding Senator Elizabeth Warren or the staff or representatives of Senator Elizabeth Warren, in both her capacity as a United States Senator and as a private citizen. Direct correspondence should include letters, emails, reports, and other relevant material. I am not seeking any secondary material such as phone logs, notations of conversation, etc.”

GSA conducted a search in response to your FOIA request and the responsive materials filed January 2011 to present regarding Senator Elizabeth Warren or the staff or representatives of Senator Elizabeth Warren, in both her capacity as a United States Senator and as a private citizen. Our search of GSA records failed to identify any records or files that are responsive to your request.

Since the agency does not have any records within the scope of your request, this does not constitute a denial of records. You have the right to appeal the adequacy of our search. As such, you may administratively submit your appeal online at the following link: (<https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>) or by writing to the following address shown below:

U.S. General Services Administration
FOIA Requester Service Center (H1F)
1800 F Street, NW, Room 7308
Washington, DC 20405

Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 120 days of the date of the response to your request. In addition, your appeal must contain a brief statement of the reasons why the requested information should be released. Please enclose a copy of your initial request and this denial. Both the appeal letter and envelope or online appeal submission should be prominently marked, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

This completes our action on this FOIA request. Should you have any questions concerning this matter, please feel free to contact Ms. Hyacinth Perrault via email at gsa.foia@gsa.gov. You may also contact the GSA FOIA Public Liaison, Ms. Audrey Brooks at 202-205-5912 or by email at audrey.brooks@gsa.gov for any additional assistance and to discuss any aspect of your FOIA request. Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001, or by e-mail at ogis@nara.gov or by telephone at 202-741-5770 or our toll free number free 1-877-684-6448 or facsimile at 202-741-5769.
